OVERVIEW

Cook Inlet Projects

- Onshore- Plans to drill multiple locations
- Offshore- 6 wells in the permitting process
- Wells will evaluate 2P reserves of 115 MMBOE and P50 resource potential of 135 MMBOE

What does this mean for the Southcentral Alaska?

- More Jobs
- Growth in Local Economy
- Energy Security for Southcentral Alaska
- Development Projects

SOUTHCENTRAL OUTLOOK

Consistent and stable fiscal policy will attract and retain investment

More drilling in the Cook Inlet will increase:

- Gas reserves,
- Gas production in the near term for Alaska, and
- Potential for continued LNG export

Southcentral is highly dependent upon natural gas for power generation and home heating

- New Opportunities with Mining and other Industrial uses will fuel demand for additional gas reserves
- Increased demand will improve the economic viability of additional drilling and exploration in the Cook Inlet
