Cook Inlet Regional Citizens Advisory Council
Special Interest Stakeholder Group
Membership Application

The Cook Inlet Regional Citizens Advisory Council, formed as a not-for-profit corporation, consists of municipal, borough and special interest stakeholder groups. The Bylaws of the Cook Inlet RCAC allow organizations located in the vicinity of oil terminal facilities in the Cook Inlet area to become special interest group members if they are bona fide organizations that meet existing selection criteria:

- Activities take place in vicinity of Cook Inlet or Kodiak
- Headquarters or affiliate offices are located in vicinity of Cook Inlet or Kodiak
- Majority of members reside in vicinity of Cook Inlet or Kodiak
- Must have at least 20 members
- Must meet at least on an annual basis
- Incorporated or at least recognized by the State of Alaska, or be affiliated with a national organization

Certified members may participate in the nomination and election of their stakeholder group's representative to the Board of Directors. In addition, members receive regular communications from the Council on matters relevant to Cook Inlet oil facility operations and environmental monitoring. Note that there are no membership dues or fees.
