

United States Coast Guard
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Site Map

Home

News and Information

District Information

Arctic Awareness

Alaska Bear

17th District Public Affairs
U.S. Coast Guard

U.S. Department of Homeland Security
United States
Coast Guard

Date: June 18, 2010

Contact: Petty Officer 1st Class David Mosley
(907) 271-2660

Photo Release

Photos Available: Meritorious Public Service Award presented to the Cook Inlet RCAC

ANCHORAGE, Alaska -- Rear Adm. Christopher Colvin, 17th Coast Guard District commander, presents the Meritorious Public Service Award to Michael Munger of the Cook Inlet Regional Citizens Advisory Council for their outstanding dedication and support of the Coast Guard promoting environmentally safe marine transportation and oil facility operations at the councils quarterly meeting held in Anchorage, June 18, 2010.

The Cook Inlet RCAC has worked closely with the 17th Coast Guard District and the Coast Guard Sector Anchorage command in consistently providing their expertise and dedication to protect the Cook Inlet region and its citizens which was evident through the Council's actions during Mount Redoubt's threat to the Drift River Terminal in March 2009, the Seabulk Pride grounding in February 2006 and the sinking of the Monarch in January 2009.

U.S. Coast Guard photo by Petty Officer 1st Class David Mosley

ANCHORAGE, Alaska -- Rear Adm. Christopher Colvin, 17th Coast Guard District commander, presents the Meritorious Public Service Award to Michael Munger of the Cook Inlet Regional Citizens Advisory Council for their outstanding dedication and support of the Coast Guard promoting environmentally safe marine transportation and oil facility operations at the councils quarterly meeting held in Anchorage, June 18, 2010.

The Cook Inlet RCAC worked closely with the 17th Coast Guard District and the Coast Guard Sector Anchorage command during the March 2009 Mount Redoubt threat to the Drift River Terminal when Council members with access to extensive data gathered through the Council's exhaustive partnership programs evaluated risks based on multiple response scenarios and as a result the Council developed and provided practical advice the to the Unified Command garnering an immediate benefit towards and informative response.

U.S. Coast Guard photo by Petty Officer 1st Class David Mosley

ANCHORAGE, Alaska -- Rear Adm. Christopher Colvin, 17th Coast Guard District commander, presents the Meritorious Public Service Award to Michael Munger of the Cook Inlet Regional Citizens Advisory Council for their outstanding dedication and support of the Coast Guard promoting environmentally safe marine transportation and oil facility operations at the councils quarterly meeting held in Anchorage, June 18, 2010.

The Cook Inlet RCAC has worked closely with the 17th Coast Guard District and the Coast Guard Sector Anchorage command in consistently providing their expertise and dedication to protect the Cook Inlet region and its citizens which was evident through the Council's actions during Mount Redoubt's threat to the Drift River Terminal in March 2009, the Seabulk Pride grounding in February 2006 and the sinking of the Monarch in January 2009.

U.S. Coast Guard photo by Petty Officer 1st Class David Mosley

###

*Saving Lives and Guarding the Coast Since 1790.
The United States Coast Guard -- Proud History. Powerful Future.*

Home

Contact Us

Privacy Policy

Accessibility

FOIA

USA.gov

No FEAR

Homeport

U.S. Department of Homeland Security